Over the years we have donated large amounts of money towards numerous charities through the events that we have attended.

If you would like to organise a charity shopping evening for you and your friends, in the comfort of your home – please email info@alkara.org

The organiser will receive a 10% donation of total sales on the day to go to a charity of their choice.

We organise The Trading Post - a collection of unique boutique companies who are not found on the high street, all selling under one roof at carefully selected venues in London, providing a very special shopping experience www.thetradingpostlondon.org
